More from Bugatti The perfect suit designs a combination of style-consciousness and unconsciousness. In the right suit, one can cope with the everyday business in style, turn to an upcoming job interview with confidence or show appropriate respect on special occasions such as a wedding. Finding a modern, smart-casual business suit can sometimes be challenging. Especially in business, first impressions count down and with a few basic tips when it comes to costumes, each person can prove their awareness of the label and comply accordingly with the requirements for clothing What is perfect? What should I keep in mind when I buy a suit jacket? What shirt is the right choice for a suit? What connections are acceptable? Do shoes have to match the suit? What understated accessories can I add to make it look more elegant? In our costume style guide, we share with you important tips and tricks. The main rule of stylish business appearance is: Do not overdo it! A few carefully selected accessories are more than enough to impress in the business environment. Ideally, the shoulders of the suit jacket should form a straight line, which is slightly longer than shoulder seams, although they should not extend to the sleeves. The stylish two-piece suit should be beautifully cut out and emphasize the personality of the user. Our magic formula is: It all depends on finding cutting is the one that is perfect for you! We offer two alternatives: Buy a bugatti suit or buy each of the different elements of a suit separately with our block system, which allows you to combine jacket, shirt and trousers in different sizes with each other. Costume tip No. 1 You should be aware of the fact that you are wearing a suit jacket, but this should never hinder your movements! Ideally, the shoulders of the suit jacket should form a straight line, which is slightly longer than shoulder seams, although they should not extend to the sleeves. The edges of the sleeves should rest on the basis of the thumbs. Fashion-conscious men choose sleeves that are one to two centimeters shorter for a casual look. The thin cut creates a silhouette to order and makes him dressed in a fashionable look. Lapels should lie flat on both sides of the jacket, right next to the button when fastened; tight-fitting or lapels that stand up. Go to the Size Guide, whether in summer or in winter – the fabric should be taken into account when choosing business shirt. During the colder months, heavy cotton shirts such as Oxford shirts are a good choice, while light weights are a good choice the shirts are comfortable to wear on hot days and have an additional cooling effect. The stylish look always requires a long sleeve, since short-sleeved shirts are never worn under the suit jacket. When temperatures rise, it is acceptable to roll up their sleeves. However, you need to roll them again when putting on the jacket and tightening the cuffs. The less, the better! In keeping with the motto less is more, matching belt puts the perfect touch on your suit, whether classic smooth leather version with understated heel or more jealousy velvet suede belt. Please do not be tempted to wear attractive buckles or logo buckles or wide belts made of coarse leather. When it comes to color, the belt should match the shoes. It should be about 3 to 3.5 centimeters wide. Bugatti belts in store Modern gentleman should choose to wear leather or suede lace-up shoes or boots. Oxford or Derby shoes or brogues are considered the perfect choice. Boots are also acceptable for the ankle; only in winter and never on official occasions or at business meetings. Your shoes should emphasize your refined overall look in an underw vin tinged way, match the length of your trousers and not deviate from the suit. Oxford in the style of the brood are a classic and elegant choice. Modern interpretation of these business shoes allows such details as embossed exotic reptiles or colored laces that make a statement. Perfect suit is not complete without the right pair of shoes!
